"Drawing on the wisdom of the Celtic Christian tradition and a call to return to nature, hospitality, the natural rhythms of life, to non-violence, to beauty, Lean Towards the Light This Advent & Christmas—like all of Christine Sine's projects—is a wonderful collaboration of voices and perspectives that will help folks walk through Advent season with hope."

~Kathy Escobar, Co-Pastor, The Refuge and author of Practicing: Changing Yourself to Change the World and Faith Shift: Finding Your Way Forward When Everything You Believe is Coming Apart.

STORIES:

This book is a bit different from other books.

When you see words like THIS you need to say them really, REALLY loudly.

And when you see Shhhhhhh.....
you should whisper the words really, really quietly.

Let's practise!

Something AMAZING has happened!

Shhhhhhh.....

And if you're lucky enough to have a grown-up read to you, make sure that they use their loudest, softest and silliest voices!

AHH!
AHHHHH!
an ANGEL!

The shepherds were so, so scared.
But wait! The angel was saying something...
